We couldn't agree more with Greenspan's remark. Fine art is truly the ideal investment – an investment that rewards its owners with both enjoyment of the work and enjoyment of its financial appreciation. The recent years have seen LUMAS EDITIONS of Erin Cone and Robert Lebeck, not to mention LUMAS MASTERS of Damian Hirst and Christo, become sought after guests in the world's auction houses. Appreciating over time, these works of art have yielded owners gains of up to 500%. Check out some of our most successful appreciation values below:
